Corporate News Release of Woltank-Adisa Holding AG

Woltank-Adisa Holding AG publishes half-year figures 2019 and raises forecast

Woltank-Adisa Holding AG, Innsbruck, today published its figures for the first half of 2019.

In the first six months of the year, revenues increased by roughly 61.50% to Euro 26.256 million compared to 2018 (Euro 16.255 million in the first half-year 2018). At the same time, EBITDA jumped to almost Euro 2.92 and EBIT to Euro 2.14 million.

The report can be downloaded from the corporate website at <https://woltank-adisa.com/investor-relations/> .

Thanks to the good business development and the positive order situation, the Management Board raises its forecast for the full year 2019 and confirms revenues of at least Euro 50.00 million (old: Euro 45.00 million), an EBITDA of Euro 4.7 million (old: Euro 4.4 million) and an EBIT of Euro 3.2 million (old: Euro 2.9 million).

"The pleasing business performance of the 2019 financial year makes us confident that our international growth strategy and consistent focus on environmental cleaning technology will drive us to becoming a successful global player in the clean tech sector in the near future", said CEO Dr. Peter Werth.
